

REGULATION

1. The Association “Amici della Musica 2000” of Atri (Te) sponsored by the Town Hall of Atri, the Province of Teramo, the Abruzzo Region and the Tercas Foundation, proclaims and is organizing the “12th International Festival of the Duchi d’Acquaviva”, open to musicians of any nationality and age, which will take place at Atri from 8th to 31st August 2011.
2. It is possible to enrol in the Master Classes as active students or as listeners. The maximum number of active students will be established by the teacher of the relevant Master Class. In the event of applications exceeding the teacher’s availability, auditions for admission as active students are provided for. Those not admitted will be able to participate in the Master Classes as listeners. The tuition fee for the listeners is set at 25% of the tuition fee for active students.
3. The application for admission must be sent (or sent by e-mail to the address info@amicidellamusica2000.it) within 27th July 2011 (as proof the date of the postmark of the letter’s departure) to the “Amici della Musica 2000” Association, Piazza S. Marina, 1 - 64032 Casoli di Atri (Te) Italy, complete in every part and with a passport-size photograph and the copy of the receipt for payment of € 50 for the entrance fee, to be made by postal order addressed to the “Amici della Musica 2000” Association, or by bank transfer addressed to the “Amici della Musica 2000” Association, Iban IT730070867675000000301130, Swift Code ICRAITRRU60. The entrance fee will be refunded only if the Master Class should be annulled. Applications that arrive incomplete or after the expiry date will not be accepted.
4. The travel and sojourn expenses are born entirely by the students.
5. The students must present themselves at 9 a.m. on the first day of the chosen Master Class at the Festival secretary’s office, at the Primary School “L. Radice” of Atri in Viale Umberto I, to receive the appropriate information, pay the entire tuition fee and make contact with their teacher.
6. The lessons will be held every day, morning and afternoon, at the Primary School, the Theatre and the S. Agostino Auditorium. Each teacher, in agreement with his own students, will draw up an internal timetable for the daily lessons.
7. For the Master Classes in string and wind instruments the presence of an accompanying pianist is arranged for. Study classrooms provided with a piano will be made available to the students at the Primary School. Each students must provide his own music stand.
8. The students who particularly distinguish themselves, after the teacher’s recommendation, will participate in the final Concert of the relevant Master Class. It is appropriate to wear concert dress. All students will receive a Participation Diploma.
9. The Concerts will take place at Atri at the Theatre and the S. Agostino Auditorium. The realization of CDs containing the best performances of the Festival Concerts is contemplated.
10. The students will not be able to advance any financial claim or of any other sort for the performances carried out in the Concerts nor for any possible use made on the radio or television, or produced by any other reproduction technique, of the same performances.
11. The Association declines all responsibility in the event of theft, damage and accidents to persons during the course of the Festival.
12. The Association reserves the right to make changes to the present regulation. In that case, it will see to it that the interested parties are informed promptly.
13. Participation in the Festival implies the complete and unreserved acceptance of the present regulation. The Court of Teramo is competent for any controversy.
